THE LILY AND THE PRINCE.

Nature and training have made Miss Marguerite Blake a foremost actress. Her figure is plump and perfect with arms that were lost from the Venus de Milo. Her eyes are well shaped and full of expression, with a face that is classic with clear, soft complexion. Her smile is comprehensive and eloquent, her voice is contralto in register low and soft. In temperament she is both emotional and artistic. Take her all in all, Miss Blake is a pretty woman and as clever as she is beautiful.Miss Blake is charming and sweet in the love passages of the play and rises to great height and power in the climaxes of the third and fourth acts.The story is based on an attempted overthrow of the Papal states in the 16th century, and being laid in Italy, time and locality afford a rare chance for the suitable setting of scenery and costumes. These are provided lavishly and the result is a succession of stage pictures which charm the eye, while the action and dialogue sustain the interest until the curtain drops upon a happy ending."The Lily and the Prince" in which Miss Blake will be seen as Angela is the offering at the Grand Opera House on next Tuesday evening."JESSE JAMES."
The cowboys with the "Jesse James" sensational drama, are a

TO DISSOLVE
THE CONTRACTAttorney General Ellis will Bring Suit.

CHARTERS NOT ATTACKED

Anti-Trust Law not Violated in Marion.Attorney General Wade H. Ellis Reads an Opinion in the New Famous Telephone Case.Attorney General Wade H. Ellis rendered a decision, Friday, in regard to the telephone war now on here between the Bell and Marion County companies and the United States company. Mr. Ellis decided to start a suit to dissolve the existing contract between the Bell and Marion County companies.
He will not, however, attempt to relieve either company of its charter.The attorney general's of the opinion that to allow the Bell company to have full control of long distance service in the state would be most injurious and he thinks that the controversy over the Marion situation should be settled at once. The gist of the attorney general's opinion follows:The question presented is involved in considerable doubt. It may be that the contract complained of does not contravene the law or public policy of Ohio, but the consequences that would follow the general absorption of the long distance business by the so-called Bell company and the destruction of all competition in Ohio, a result that might easily be predicted if similar contracts to that effect in Marion county were made throughout the state, are so far reaching as to make advisable an early determination of the lawfulness of such agreement. It is especially important to the telephone interests of the state, including not only the companies complaining, but those complained against, that their respective rights in the question raised by this controversy should be definitely ascertained.11,000 RAILROAD MEN

Gilbert Appoints Special Inspectors.

Columbus, O., Dec. 14.—Auditor of State Gilbert has appointed J. H. Mc-Giffert, of Ashley, and Peter Outcault, of Cincinnati, as special inspectors to check up the payments of the public service corporations of the state under the Cole excise tax law. Quasi public corporations pay a tax of 1 per cent. of their gross earnings, amounting to about $2,000,000 annually, to the state under the Cole law. It is not charged that there has been any deception in returns, but it is believed to be good business management to verify the reports.

Eleven Thousand Sheep Drowned.

Seattle, Dec. 14.—News comes from Entiat, Wash., that 11,000 sheep were recently drowned in Mad river. The sheep were being driven from the Cascade Mountains to the Entiat valley to winter. While the flock was going down a mountain side the leaders slipped on the sleet covered ground and rolled over a precipice into the river below. The rest of the flock plunged into the river, despite the efforts of the shepherds to restrain them.Peoples' Transfer
